

THE BRON TIMES

May 2019 Newsletter

BRON.

WATERTOWN, NY

Watertown is looking to become more proactive on vacant properties.

City Manager Rick Finn stated enacting an ordinance is a way to be more proactive and not only keep track of the number of vacant buildings, but also inspect the properties and hold owners responsible for repairs.

Watertown is estimating the vacant registration ordinance to be enacted in July.

Read the full article below
<https://www.wwnytv.com/story/40362817/watertown-may-require-registration-fees-for-vacant-properties>

BRON.

BRON EMPLOYEE SPOTLIGHT

FIVE STAR
PROFESSIONAL

Karla Ballard

FIVE STAR
PROFESSIONAL

Michael Tanyaviriya

FIVE STAR
PROFESSIONAL

Taunja Biggs

BRON Inc. is committed to providing our clients with best-in-class service. Incorporating the latest development strategies, Bron is excited to announce that our team of supervisors are Five Star Professionals and have received their Master Certification through the Five Star Academy.

Congratulations to Karla Ballard, Michael Tanyaviriya and Taunja Biggs!

The Master Certification included course completion of the following programs:

- Regulatory Compliance
- Legal Practice
- Diversity and Inclusion
- Distressed Asset Disposition

Our #1 Goal: To be your best vendor!

BRON.

